

Future Options for North Australia

Stephen Garnett

Professor of Tropical Knowledge
Institute for Advanced Studies, Charles Darwin
University

John Woinarski

Principal Research Scientist
Department of Natural Resources, Environment and the Arts;
Adjunct Professorial Fellow
Institute for Advanced Studies, Charles Darwin
University

Rolf Gerritsen

Professorial Fellow
Tropical Savannas Cooperative Research Centre
Research Leader Central Australia
Institute for Advanced Studies, Charles Darwin
University

Gordon Duff

Former Chief Executive Officer
Tropical Savannas Cooperative Research Centre
Chief Executive Officer
Cooperative Research Centre for Forestry

Contents

INTRODUCTION

THE CURRENT SITUATION

DRIVERS

1. Demographic and Settlement Patterns
2. Social function
3. Land tenure and associated property rights
4. Commonwealth Government Policy
5. Globalised trade and the international economy
6. Resource use
7. Oil futures
8. Global climate change
9. Invasive organisms
10. Innovation and Technology
11. Linking the Drivers Together

SCENARIOS

1. Chronic underdevelopment
2. Degeneration
3. Northern ricebowl
4. Industrial powerhouse
5. Environment first
6. Indigenous community Utopia
7. Creative urban engagement

SYNTHESIS AND CONCLUSIONS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

ENDNOTES

